Before any religious accommodations were filed, we were alerted that they'd only be accepting a certain amount. During this stressful time, many of us were scrambling trying to understand how to properly fill out the correct application which were submitted via email. Each response was in email form without the person or agencies credentials while also failing to let me know why my application was ultimately denied. Family members working in the same organization with the same religious beliefs were accepted during this time. We were given the chance to appeal the decisions but again, only via email without talking to live agent or agency. The appeal process was handled by unknown individuals without an explanation as to why my Religious accommodation was denied. During the time to submit my claim, I included many documents from church including statements

As additional support for your claim, you may attach any charge of discrimination that you filed with the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the New York State Division of Human Rights, the New York City Commission on Human Rights, or any other government agency.

V. ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES

For most claims under the federal employment discrimination statutes, before filing a lawsuit, you must first file a charge with the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) and receive a Notice of Right to Sue.

VI. RELIEF

The relief I want the court to order is (check only those that apply):

☒ direct the defendant to re-employ me

☒ direct the defendant to reasonably accommodate my religion

☐ direct the defendant to reasonably accommodate my disability
